BRING THIS CATALOG WITH YOU

FOREWORD

In presenting this catalog, we take pardonable pride and pleasure. The ten listed consignors have made the sale possible. While it is not as large in number of head selling as we had first set our goal it is large in the quality offering to be sold on October 16th.

A few of the good Shorthorn breeders in this section suggested that such a sale be organized for this part of Ohio, with the location at London.

We have found great interest in this movement. Not only the Breeders but the public in general, have welcomed this sale. Some years back this location did flourish with a strong Association that attracted the breeders' attention nationally. It is the hope to once again establish that interest.

We want to thank our consignors and friends that have supported the sale. Due to the busy years of our supporters and the shortage of help, we were unable to secure many good pictures we would have hoped for. The pictures we have presented are through the courtesy of The Shorthorn World. They produced the cuts needed from their files of the herds of our consignors.

We also want to extend our many thanks to Greenwood Farms for the group picture for our front cover page. While it may have been presented in past publications, it is still a very attractive picture of Shorthorns in pasture and production.

We know you will not be disappointed in our offering. Our consignors have gone into their herds and listed the kind they would like to keep. It is truly a quality presentation of breeding stock from start to finish.

On behalf of the consignors, our community, and the sale management, we welcome you and your friends as our buyers or visitors at London, on Tuesday, October 16th. Mark the sale date on your calendar now and attend.

Sincerely,

The Sale Management

Graham, taken from a few selected heifers that was to remain in the Greenwood herd, to support this sale of Central Ohio Shorthorn Breeders.
